The Il Mulino publishing house has grown together with the journal of the same name, published for the first time in Bologna on 25th April 1951. In June 1954 the company became known as the Società editrice il Mulino, gradually developing, enlarging and enriching its editorial activity with a vast and diverse collection of periodical publications. While a number of journals offer a balanced analysis of current affairs for a general audience, other, more specialised titles offer to scholars the most recent research output in all of the disciplinary areas covered by the publisher.

Since its foundation in the late 1950's, Casalini Libri S.p.A. has been dedicated to the supply of bibliographical services, books and journals to national, academic and public libraries and institutions worldwide.
