The Olschki publishing house was founded in Verona as an antiquarian book dealer and publisher in 1886 before moving to Florence in 1897. For 125 years, founder Leo S. Olschki's vision and the objectives that distinguished it have remained unchanged: to build one of the most efficient channels for the diffusion, at an international level, of Italian research in the Humanities; and to guarantee the availability of a back catalogue of publications in the original edition for consultation by scholars, librarians and cultural institutions.

Since its foundation in the late 1950's, Casalini Libri S.p.A. has been dedicated to the supply of bibliographical services, books and journals to national, academic and public libraries and institutions worldwide. Since its outset Casalini Libri has worked closely with libraries and publishers to develop customized supply and library services that suit the individual needs of our customers around the world.

The Casalini Libri Digital Division, established in January 2000 following an international pilot project, offers innovative electronic publishing services to the highest industry standards, collaborating with Italian and international publishers to create and distribute digital publications.

The company, headquartered in Fiesole (Florence, Italy), adheres to the ISO 9000 Quality Management System.
