

Leo S. Olschki

Archivio storico italiano and Lettere italiane journals on Torrossa

Following Lares, Belfagor and Il pensiero politico, Leo S. Olschki has also digitized its periodical titles Archivio storico italiano and Lettere italiane. Both of these journals are available through the Torrossa platform as complete collections offering the entire backfiles up to 2012.

ARCHIVIO STORICO ITALIANO

Founded in 1842, the journal Archivio storico italiano continues its long tradition in the publication of essays, commentaries, discussions, conference reports, reviews and news in the field of Italian History. Covering all periods from the early Middle Ages to the Twentieth Century, the journal pays particular attention to the study and valorisation of archival documentation. The collection includes all complete years from the journal's foundation (1842) to 2012, plus 8 indices.

LETTERE ITALIANE

Founded in 1949, this is one of the most authoritative journals in the field of Italian Literature, welcoming contributions from some of the most internationally renowned scholars in the field. Bringing together both philology and exegesis, Lettere italiane provides a fundamental contribution to the study of Romance languages and comparative literatures, with up-to the minute critical bibliographical information. The collection includes all complete years from the journal's foundation (1949) to 2012, for a total of 254 issues.

AUTHORISATIONS AND MARC RECORDS

Permanent access is guaranteed for all purchased content. A small annual maintenance fee is charged for permanent access. This fee is waived in years that additional content/packages are purchased.

License terms grant authorized users with permissions to view, copy/paste text, download and print. Documents are accessible in PDF format.

CONTACTS

For further information or to activate a month's free trial period, please contact us at torrossa@casalini.it.

The Olschki publishing house was founded in Verona as an antiquarian book dealer and publisher in 1886 before moving to Florence in 1897. For 125 years, founder Leo S. Olschki's vision and the objectives that distinguished it have remained unchanged: to build one of the most efficient channels for the diffusion, at an international level, of Italian research in the Humanities; and to guarantee the availability of a back catalogue of publications in the original edition for consultation by scholars, librarians and cultural institutions.

Since its foundation in the late 1950's, Casalini Libri S.p.A. has been dedicated to the supply of bibliographical services, books and journals to national, academic and public libraries and institutions worldwide. Since its outset Casalini Libri has worked closely with libraries and publishers to develop customized supply and library services that suit the individual needs of our customers around the world.

The Casalini Libri Digital Division, established in January 2000 following an international pilot project, offers innovative electronic publishing services to the highest industry standards, collaborating with Italian and international publishers to create and distribute digital publications.

The company, headquartered in Fiesole (Florence, Italy), adheres to the ISO 9000 Quality Management System.

Editoria Italiana Online and Torrossa are registered trademarks of Casalini Libri S.p.A.

© 2013 Casalini Libri (Fiesole, Italia) press@casalini.it www.casalini.it - www.torrossa.it